ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

By choosing to pay and forfeit bail in installments and not go to court, you will be giving up these rights:

- To appear in court without deposit of bail for formal arraignment, plea and sentencing;
- To ask for community service (if available) instead of paying the total amount due;
- To request and have a court trial, to challenge the charges without deposit of bail, unless the court orders bail;
- To have a speedy court trial and have the charges dismissed if a speedy trial is requested but not provided;
- To be represented by an attorney at your expense;
- To subpoen or present witnesses and physical evidence using the power of the court at no cost to you and to testify on your own behalf;
- · To confront and cross-examine all witnesses under oath testifying against you; and
- To remain silent and not testify.
- By requesting to pay your fine in installments, you will not be allowed to attend Traffic Violator School.

At any time before your final payment, if you have experienced a change in financial circumstances, you may ask that the court consider your ability to pay. If the court considers your ability to pay, the court may modify your installment plan, allow you to complete community service (if available) instead of paying the total amount due, or suspend all or part of the fine. The court is not required to offer you any of the above options, and the court may deny your request.

If you would like to see a breakdown of the fines and fees go to http://www.saccourt.ca.gov/traffic/traffic.aspx and review the "Traffic Fines" section.
